Dear Sir / Madam,

Healthcare Reform Consultation Document

Healthcare reform is a subject that concerns all of us as individuals, and one that is important to the long-term well-being of the entire community. We have therefore prepared the enclosed consultation document entitled "Your Health Your Life" to consult the community on various options aimed at further improving our services and making them sustainable in the long term. I write to invite you to participate in this consultation exercise by giving us your advice. I look forward to receiving your views.
