Hong Kong College of Physicians

Statement on COVID-19 Vaccination

- (1) Hong Kong College of Physicians strongly encourages the general public to join the COVID-19 vaccination programme.
- (2) Patients with chronic diseases should be encouraged to receive COVID-19 vaccination. The benefit from protection conferred by vaccination far exceeds the potential risk of adverse reactions to vaccines, which are very uncommon.
- (3) For patients who feel unwell, or who have been informed that their medical conditions are not under satisfactory control and require earlier medical attention and treatment, it is advisable to defer vaccination until their health conditions have been stabilized.
